THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

ALBERT GIUSTI, spouse of police matron-stenographer JUANITA, had better trod the straight and narrow.

Juanita, in accordance with the police department's program of keeping personnel well versed in the use of firearms, got her indoctrination to pistol shooting Tuesday at the Colma range, under supervision of Officer JAMES WELSH.

She becomes the first lady to ever tote a gun for the local PD.

There may be some red faces among the gendarmes when they compare their pistol shooting scores with Juanita's. You can bet there'll be a lot more Sunday practicing by the regular officers in the immediate future.

Shades of the city of angels with dirty faces: Some of Daly City's citizens are smoking about the smog situation here. Petition protesting said smog may be in the offing.

One irate citizen quipped, "Next thing you know, California will be as bad as Los Angeles."

Last Friday was the 13th and we plead for leniency on that grounds. Actually, it was MR. and not MRS. MIKE LEVITAN who passed away, leaving $10 to the Crusade. The Mrs., who is hale and hearty, only carried out Mike's last wishes.

Another blooper: On a PTA story, we had several Mr.'s listed as Mrs., which amounted to the most indiscreet miss of the week.

Just received word from ROY HURLBERT, one-time sports scribe for THE RECORD.

Jovial Roy is still on the typewriter circuit, but gets his paychecks from the U. S. Government, channelled by way of the U. S. Air Force.

He's editing the base paper at Orlando, Fla.

His folks, MR. and MRS. CLARENCE R. HURLBERT, avid readers of this publication (bless 'em), have left SF and shuffled on down to South San Francisco, now at 201 Clay avenue, where they can sing the wonderments of life in San Mateo county as opposed to that of our neighbors to the north.

General hard times on the popcorn and matinee front are hitting locally.

The Daly City Theater, which has been operating only on week-ends since the decline and fall of the movie dollar, will pull down the marquee through the month of December, we hear.

ACCOUNTANT-CADDY GUILTY OF THEFT; MUST LEAVE STATE

Edward Orville Booth, 37-year-old public accountant with a masters degree from Ohio State University, was given a post-graduate lesson by Judge Thomas L. Bocci this week.

Bocci, finding the accountant-turned-caddy guilty of petty theft, sentenced Booth to 50 days in the county jail, suspended on the terms that Booth leave the state.

Booth, who left his profession to become an itinerant caddy, was found guilty of taking wine and cigarettes from Puccini's grocery, Junipero Serra boulevard, November 10.

Police arrested Booth later when some of his caddy buddies reported that he was selling cigarettes to them, eight packs for $1.

POLICE DEPARTMENT EXPANSION GETS OK

In a study session Monday night the city council gave approval to plans for expanding police department space in the city hall.

A move has been on during the past year to relieve congested conditions at the local department.

Meeting with the police commission, who presented a floor plan for the expansion program, the council wholeheartedly endorsed the idea.

The plan calls for the police department to take over the entire eastside of the city hall. The water department staff will be reduced to one person as soon as the efficiency of the billing machine being used is increased, according to City Administrator Dan Andersen.

Water bills may also be paid at the three local banks, if the proposal is carried out.

The one administrator with the water department will probably be given an office within the police headquarters, according to Tony Ricci, chairman of the police commission.

The building inspector, now occupying a portion of the east side of the city hall, will be housed in the city hall basement, Ricci said.

Expansion of the department space will make possible eventual personnel expansion, Ricci said.

Commission plans specific that the police organization will be departmentalized when expansion is complete.

There will be separate rooms for interviews, files, teletype operations and a chief's office.

Ricci said this will "make it much easier for citizens who have a problem to discuss with the police."

The floor plan has already been approved and will be carried out as soon as water department operations can be cut down.

BREATHING STOPS; OPERATION SAVES DC GIRL'S LIFE

A six-year-old Daly City child is resting well today after being rushed by ambulance to St. Francis hospital Tuesday for removal of a throat obstruction which had stopped her breathing.

Lorene Marbel Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Argie Gardner, 239 Hillcrest drive, complained to her mother Tuesday that she was having difficulty breathing, then, shortly after going to bed, collapsed.

She was taken to Alameda Emergency hospital and placed under an oxygen tent. She was later moved to St. Francis where surgeons operated to remove the obstruction blocking her respiratory system.

The doctors said evidently a throat infection had caused the impediment. She is now breathing under aid of a tube which brings air from a pulmotor into her throat.

Although she is apparently out of danger, attendants said they had no idea how soon she could be released.

The girl's mother is an active Daly City club woman, being former president of the Eagles auxiliary and present head of the Jobs Daughters Mothers' club.

Traffic Safety Check Planned Here Weds.

Weather permitting, a traffic safety check will be held Wednesday from 8 p.m. to midnight, Officer Henry Sundermann announced this week.

The check will be on the 7200 block of Mission street, and will be for north bound traffic.

Sundermann and Los Bastedo will supervise the check.

Robert Hunter Wins Chamber Commerce President Position

Robert Hunter, public accountant, of 437 Santa Barbara avenue, was yesterday (Thursday) named president of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce.

Fred Martin, re-named to the board of directors, was selected as vice president, while Alice "Pat" Van Over will fill the post of secretary.

Continuing in the treasurer position will be William Sweeney Jr. Newly named to the board of directors were Ray Charette and Jerry Mincher. Hugh Smith Jr. was re-elected for a three-year term on the board.

Defeated board members were George Glass and George Kirchhubel.

Motorist Charged With Hit-Run Here Pleads Not Guilty

An alleged hit-and-run driver was apprehended by police Sunday after an alert witness observed his license number and summoned deputies.

Police said Charles Biehl, 37, of 1700 El Camino Real, was travelling south Monday evening on Junipero Serra boulevard, when he crossed the white line, striking a vehicle being driven north by Herman Carl Hogrege, 35, of Kentfield, Calif.

According to police, Biehl sped away from the scene but his license number was taken by a witness, William Huston, of 600 East (Continued on Page 2)

CITYFIX-UP

By The Squack Doctor

(Ed. note: The City Fix-Up, with public support, begins today as a regular feature of THE RECORD. It's purpose is to air squawks, gripes, complaints (whatever you choose to call them) about civic conditions. If you've got a beef, don't "tell it to the judge." Let us know about it. All we ask is that you sign your name. If you prefer, your name will be left out of the paper, but we will use no anonymous letters.)

First case up for diagnosis by the doctor this week comes from Ray Charette, local businessman.

Charette says, "The individuals responsible for the grounds of the Post Office located at Bepler and Mission Circle should be ashamed of the condition that has existed ever since the building was completed over two years ago."

Symptom: "Not one spadeful of dirt has been moved to level off or beautify the area."

Summing up, Charette says, "It certainly is an eye-sore to the community and something should be done to correct the situation."

Our second case today is more in the jurisdiction of the veterinarian.

Mrs. Lydia Talbot cites a malignant condition on Westlake avenue.

Dogs roam the streets there by the dozen, she says, and when they do it's hardly safe to pass by on the sidewalks.

What's worse, she says, is the dogs' total disregard of sound hygiene habits. Seems the lawns and streets abound with evidence.

That's it for a starter by the Squack Doctor and his City Fix-Up this week, citizens. If you're interested in this city and its welfare, there'll be more next week.

DC Clergyman Is Picked One Of 100 SF "Newsmakers"

The Rev. James C. Etheredge Jr., 221 Fairlawn avenue, Daly City, has been named one of San Francisco's 100 "Newsmakers of Tomorrow."

The ten-week promotion and search for the city's "newsmakers" was co-sponsored by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and Time magazine.

The Rev. Etheredge was honored for his work as associate minister of the Glide Memorial Methodist church.

In naming the 100 representatives between the ages of 25 and 40, the selection committee gave consideration to occupational or professional achievements and contributions to civic betterment and community activities. More than 3000 nominations were considered.

The Rev. Etheredge, along with his wife, was among those honored at a civic banquet held Tuesday in the Palace hotel.

City Will Participate In State-Wide Warning

Daly City will take part in the state-wide attack warning test to be held Monday noon.

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi said the alert will be mainly to test equipment and personnel. The general public will not be involved in the test.

DRIVE TO EXTEND NO. 14 BUS CONTINUES; CITIZENS URGED TO GIVE OPINIONS

The drive to extend the No. 14 bus line into Colma continued this week, but there was still left much to be desired on the part of the community's citizens.

To date approximately 100 of THE RECORD's Transportation Improvement Ballots have been forwarded to this office, with a heavy majority of the opinion showing a definite need for the bus extension.

Response to the five petitions asking Colma service has been light, with little more than 100 signatures.

THE RECORD, in order to again give citizens an opportunity to voice their opinion on the matter, has provided another ballot, to be found elsewhere on this page. It has been pointed out that if there is insufficient weight of opinion to prompt extension of the bus service, it will be largely because of apathy on the part of citizens.

The five petitions, which interested persons may sign in addition to filling out the ballots, are located at the Anchor Drug Co., Daly City Blind and Shade, Peter Markovich Insurance office, Geo. Lagomarsino Co. and THE RECORD.

Mayor Anthony Gaggero said this week that he was all in favor of extending the service to provide citizens better transportation, but he denied that the extension had never been discussed with San Francisco public utilities head James Turner.

"We've brought the matter up on many occasions," he said. He added that Turner was "haywire" in saying the matter had never been brought to his attention.

CITY CONTINUES CLIMB TO UNITED CRUSADE QUOTA

Daly City's United Crusade total rose to $4091.96, 34.6 per cent of the $11,829 quota, this week, but this city still remained behind the 47.3 per cent overall average for the county.

Residential collections here hit $1788.96, giving that division 54.5 per cent of its quota. The residential figure climbed more than $350 over last week and workers were lauded by the Crusade headquarters for their "fine efforts."

Business donation total up through this week came to $1548, or 47.6 per cent of the quota. Total employee contributions, $700, amounted to 13.4 per cent of that category's quota, while the professional people have donated $55, which is 58.5 per cent of their quota.

Throughout the county $315,978 has been raised. Bayshore leads in quota percentage with 90.4.

Breakdown of residential collections in Daly City to date showed: Mrs. J. Eckert, northern Daly City, $108.25; Mrs. O. Simonsen, central Daly City, $163.34; Mrs. E. Robertson, northern Daly City, $147.10; Mrs. I. Silberstein, central Daly City, $109.22; Mrs. William Bauer, southern Daly City, $128; Mrs. A. Zweig, Broadmoor-Colma-Garden Village, $541.93; Mrs. J. Eiler, Westlake area, $377.97; Mrs. U. Boren, Sterling Tract, Colma, Inc., $106.55; miscellaneous, $5.

Five Daly Citizens Give Blood At County Bank

Five Daly City residents recently donated blood to the San Mateo County Blood Bank.

They were: Clark R. Bird, Sam Cheskey and Aaron B. Zweig, first donation; Steve Melinc and Carl A. Verhagen, fourth donation.

Westmoor High To Open In Fall, '56

Jefferson high school board of trustees meeting Wednesday night tentatively set early 1956 as the opening date for the new Westmoor high school.

The board met with Mario Ciampi, architect, and Dr. James MacConnell, consultant from Stanford, to discuss the general layout of the proposed school.

On the school's fall opening in '56, it will be equipped to handle 1000 students, according to Stanford Hannah, district superintendent.

Eventually, probably in 1959, the school will be expanded to house an estimated enrollment of 1500.

Construction is scheduled to begin in early 1956, but Hannah hopes grading operations may begin before that date.

He said if sight-usage plans are arranged in time, grading can start in less than a year.

Sight usage is the method of arranging facilities for maximum efficiency, Hannah explained.

The property on which the school will be erected, located on Skyline boulevard, is still being leased by the district to hog ranchers. The lease expires August 1, 1954, leaving ample time for the district to begin construction.

Another special meeting on the Westmoor project will be held on Monday night.

Broadmoor Woman To Appear Tuesday On Petty Theft Charges

Inez B. Crendon, 49-year-old beauty operator of 612 Larchmont drive, will appear in Municipal court Tuesday to answer charges of petty theft.

Nathan Temkin, manager of King's Market, said Mrs. Crendon entered the store Monday afternoon and walked out with two items without paying for them.

He alleges that she took a package of chicken and hid it in her dress, then picked up a can of grated cheese, placing it in her purse.

She was released Monday on $50 cash bail.

STATE GIVES OK ON BRUNSWICK WALL COMPLETION

State division of highway approval on the completion of the Brunswick extension wall was forwarded to the city this week.

The state approved plans submitted by engineer John A. Blume for fortifying the wall that caved in last January.

City Administrator Dan Andersen said the design for holding up the extension wall will provide equilateral support as well as vertical.

The job will cost an estimated $20,000, to come from gas-tax allotment, and the council is expected to call for bids Monday night.

Asked if there was any chance of a repeat of last year's cave-in, Andersen said he didn't think there would be any danger.

He explained that specifications drawn up by Blume, a structural engineer, appear sound.

Peter Venturino Has Nash Agency

Appointment of new Nash dealer, Peter Venturino of 5975 Mission street, Daly City has just been announced by W. E. Boyer, San Francisco zone manager of Nash Motors.

Venturino will officially open the doors of his new dealership on November 20, the day the 1954 Nash will be introduced to the motoring public.

No stranger to the automotive business, Venturino has been engaged in it since the middle twenties. He has been a dealer at the present location since 1938.

A resident of Daly City for 30 years he now resides at 582 San Diego avenue.

Andrew Parodi will continue as sales manager of the new dealership.

Venturino also has a GMC truck dealership.

CLAIM IS MADE THAT SYSTEM WILL CUT COSTS

A proposal to unify the county's 29 school districts gained momentum Monday but was greeted with some opposition from the Daly City front.

Under the plan, sponsored by the Peninsula Civic League, Jefferson high school and elementary districts would be consolidated along with Pedro Valley, Sharp Park, Brisbane, Bayshore and South San Francisco.

Proponents of unification claim that it would reduce administrative costs and improve the caliber of education.

Among opponents of the idea was Lyle Ingersoll, Jeff high board chairman. He said "control of local communities would be removed," and attempted to refute the claim that unification would save the taxpayers money.

Stanford Hannah, Jeff high superintendent, said yesterday that "experience shows that there is no economy in cost realized by unification."

On the other side of the question, Col. Louis E. Weiss of Redwood City, league head, argued that unification would provide "great savings in administrative expenses."

He gave the example that in the Sequoia district alone, the annual administrative expense of eight elementary and one high school unit, now costing $406,628, would be reduced to $247,600.

However, several members of the audience queried Weiss as to where he obtained his facts.

Complaints that a big district could swallow up smaller districts through consolidation elections was also made.

Many interested citizens protested that they knew and respected their local district administrators, and didn't want this desirable relationship taken away by unification.

Supposedly, under the plan, one administrator would head each unified district, while a principal would be assigned each lesser area or school.

According to proponents of the plan, salary costs for administrators would be greatly reduced under this method.

Other problems which would arise through unification, such as assumption of bonded indebtedness, were not discussed at length at the meeting.

Attending the meeting from Daly City were Ingersoll and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Weibel (Continued on Page 2)

Third Grade Mrs. Beber, Teacher

Mrs. Beber's third grade class had an interesting study trip to the De Young Museum in Golden Gate Park. They saw a wonderful exhibit of the American Indian's Arts and Crafts. The class has been studying about the Hopis, Zunis and Navajos and their various Arts and Crafts so this particular exhibit helped the children understand more fully this phase of Indian life. Now the children are enthusiastically drawing pictures and writing stories about this experience.

We are glad to have George Magill back in class after his long illness.

We are starting to make Indian plaques for our Thanksgiving Art project.

The children have learned a new folk dance, "Wooden Shoes." They are excited about the game of Kick Long Ball that Mr. Huajardo taught.

Some of the children are busy rehearsing for the Christmas program.

Third Grade Mrs. Lewis, Teacher

Tuesday, November 10, was a big day for the children in Room 7. They had gone on a study trip to the De Young museum to see a special display of American Indian Arts and Crafts.

The class was especially interested in seeing the Kachina dolls made by the Pueblo Indians and the beautifully woven rugs done by the Navajos.

The children have made Kachina masks of laminated paper. They are going to learn an Indian dance and wear the masks as part of their costume.

John Quandt is celebrating his eighth birthday November 13th, 1953.

Class chairman for this month is Harriet Nuestadt.

Third and Fourth Grades Miss Paynter, Teacher

The children in room 10 are getting ready for the Holidays. The fourth graders have made a cut-out and chalk mural depicting the first Thanksgiving.

The third graders are studying about the Pueblo Indians. They are making folders about these Indians. The folders have papers and pictures that the children have done.

The fourth graders are studying about the Early California explorers. We have learned about Cabrillo and Drake and our next study is about Portola and his trip from Mexico to California to establish towns there.

Fourth Grade Mrs. Schober, Teacher

Bruce McClellan, fourth grader in room 9, won the first prize for fourth grades in the Fire Prevention Poster Contest. Bruce won a plaque for his classroom and a set of finger paints for himself.

Two new students have entered our class, Jeri Ann Wright from Washington and Carlos Rivas from Los Angeles.

We are beginning to plan our room decorations for Christmas. We want these to be special for the Holiday Season.

Room 9 tied with the second grade for first prize in the PTA membership contest. We received a check for $2.50 which we plan to use for some special classroom purchase.

License Suspension May Follow Motoring Violation Out Of State

Four DC Dentists Attend Convention

Latest developments in dental science and dental medicine are being presented today (Friday) at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of San Francisco, where nearly a thousand dentists from all over the state returned for the fifty-fifth annual meeting of the Alumni Association.

Representatives of the dental profession from Daly City attending are Drs. George D. and John C. Karsant, Leo D. Mahan and Emery W. Olsen.

Opening speaker was Dr. Samuel C. Miller, professor at New York University College of Dentistry, who spoke on "Oral Diagnosis and Treatment Planning." Included in his talk was a discussion of the New York University dietary analysis charts and their use in planning dental health.

OBITUARIES

Hammer

Mrs. Katherine Hammer, pioneer Daly City resident, passed away last Thursday at her home in Redwood City.

She had lived in Redwood City at 921 Fourth avenue for the past three years.

Mrs. Hammer came to Daly City after the San Francisco earthquake, and lived at 67 Willits street for 42 years.

During her residence here, she was a member of the Royal Neighbors of America for more than 30 years.

She is survived by the following four children: Dan Hammer of Redwood City, Mrs. Evelyn Evans of San Mateo, Dorothy Baron of Menlo Park, and Mrs. Fred Wecke of Daly City.

She also leaves four grandchildren, Donna and Dennis Evans and Katy and Michael Baron; and two brothers, Fred and Louis John of Daly City.

Services were held Saturday morning from W. C. Lasswell & Co.

Interment was at Olivet Memorial park.

ers license of a resident of California may be suspended or revoked if that person is guilty of certain offenses in another state which, had they been convicted of the same offenses in this state, would have resulted in the loss of the license here.

The CSAA further points out that another new law requires suspension of the driving privilege of any resident of California upon receipt of a report by the Motor Vehicle Department that his or her driving privilege has been suspended in another state for failure to meet the financial security provisions of that state, if such failure would compel suspension here.

Pioneer California Industry, Trapping, $1,000,000 Industry

SACRAMENTO — California's pioneer industry, fur trapping, has not only managed to hold its own against a century and-a-half of advancing civilization, but continues to provide a million dollar-a-year business.

The annual trapping report of the Department of Fish and Game shows that pelts sold from the 1952-53 seasonal catch brought the State's 517 active licensed hunters a total of $104,500. The figure is for raw fur only and does not include processing or merchandising values.

Associate Game Manager George Seymour, in charge of fur management for the Department, estimates that another $15,000 to $20,000 worth of pelts were taken during the four-month season by youths and farm boys under the age of 18 who do not make an annual report nor require trapping licenses.

Lower prices this year pulled total sales down $9,400 from the previous season's $113,900. The number of pelts taken, however, set a post-war record of 91,300, largely because of the continuing upsurge in muskrats. Fewer trapping licenses were sold—only 901, against 1,036 for 1951-52—but almost 10 per cent more of the license buyers did active trapping.

Average prices this year ranged from $14.50 for north coast county muskrats to five cents for Sacramento county opossums. Beavers, which were the mainstay of the fur trade in the days of the mountain men and Spanish dons, this year brought an average of $5.87. Some 690 beavers were taken, most of them in the Delta region and along the Colorado river. Skunks, no trapped as intensively as they were a few years ago, brought only $4c and raccoons, an old time favorite, were worth a mere 68c.

The bulk of this season's catch, as in the past several years, was muskrat. Selling for an average of $1 a pelt, these rapidly multiplying marsh dwellers made up over 90 per cent of the year's catch. The increase was particularly apparent in the Sacramento Valley, where 46,750 skins were taken up nearly 20 per cent over the pre-

SIX-CAR SMASH-UP MOTORIST IS GIVEN SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Salesman Chester Kruse, 61, 115 Crestwood drive, was sentenced to 20 days in the county jail Tuesday by Judge Thomas L. Bocci, after pleading guilty to charges of being drunk in and about an automobile.

Kruse was picked up after smashing into five autos on November 9, when he misjudged a right-hand turn on Crestwood drive.

His sentence was suspended on condition he pay a fine of $150.

AN EXAMPLE OF HOW-NOT

We are happy, albeit amazed, to see something is finally being done about the Brunswick street extension.

The state has approved expenditure of $20,000 of gas tax money for finishing the job.

Monday night the council is expected to call bids for completion of the restraining wall, or might we say...repair of the restraining wall.

It will be a year ago in January that the water-sogged wall, supposedly ship-shape, came tumbling down into the street, bringing with it delay, damage suits in six figures and righteous public indignation.

Cost of this seemingly matter-of-fact task of extending Brunswick street some several hundred feet on to Hillside boulevard and Mission will run nearly $100,000 on completion. Admittedly, moving of tons of granite doesn't come cheap, but one-tenth of a million bucks is a fantastic sum for just one project of many in the public streets program.

We don't go along with that old patent medicine that "the state pays for it, anyway."

Stop and figure, "who is the state?" Just pull in at the gas pumps, buy an automobile or some little bobble at the five and ten.

Brother, you're the state and you've got the receipts to show for it. We're not putting the finger of responsibility on anybody for the Brunswick job and we're relieved to see it nearing completion.

But, at the same time, we believe the Brunswick job should stand as a shining example of how-not to spend the people's money in the future.

ABOUT TWO TOO MANY

Disregarding the more obvious disadvantage of the lowering of property values, we believe the 20 Westlake residents who protested construction of three churches on their block are in the right.

As there can be too much of a good thing, so can worship, in this instance, be carried too far, towards the ultimate undoing of the citizens in question.

When an individual buys a home he believes, perhaps naively, that he is buying a bit of peace and quiet for himself and his family.

With three churches on one block, we might visualize peace but hardly any quiet.

A GOOD CHRISTMAS BARGAIN

Tuberculosis costs the people of San Mateo county half a million dollars each year. It costs $350,000 to run the County Sanatorium. Tuberculosis takes up 12 1/2% of the efforts of the combined Public Health Nursing Services (county plus Visiting Nursing Assn). These figures do not include welfare assistance to families of tuberculosis patients, loss of earning power of patients, and consequent taxes lost to the state and the nation. New drugs are getting patients out of the sanatorium faster, but it is still not known how many will break down again.

One hundred and thirty new cases of TB were reported to the health department last year in San Mateo county. The figures will be roughly the same for 1953. It is estimated that 800-900 persons in San Mateo county have active TB, less than half of whom are known.

So far in 1953, the mobile X-ray unit owned and operated by the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health association has taken 20,000 free chest X-rays to discover active and inactive cases of TB. The local association has a year-round health education program to educate the individual and the community concerning TB, teaching the public that TB can be prevented, and that early discovery means early recovery.

This program is fostered through the generosity of the citizens who purchase Christmas Seals.

The Seals are a fundamental and vital force in the voluntary campaign against Tuberculosis.

Through your donation to this cause you are buying an active interest in your community.

During the past year you have had an opportunity to observe at first hand what the tuberculosis association has done.

Consider the merits in your mind and then see if the small price isn't outweighed by the value of the purchase.

Marine Exchange Distributes New S.F. Bay Map

The 104-year old Marine Exchange of San Francisco is distributing a full-color map depicting all the modern shipping facilities of San Francisco, San Pablo and Suisun Bays.

Drawn by hand to stimulate an aerial photograph, the map highlights all marine terminals with an index for all berths used by steamship companies.

The map was completed under the guidance of Fred C. Galbreath, a director and former president of the Exchange, who is Pacific Coast manager of the Marine Office of America.

Red, Green Garbed Youngster of Xmas Seals Follow World-Wide Tradition

"The red and green garbed child on the Christmas Seals being delivered to 75,000 San Mateo county homes this week is following a world-wide tradition in singing Christmas carols," T. F. McGuigan, 1953 Seal Sale chairman, said today.

But the Seals themselves are part of an even more widespread tradition, he pointed out. Beginning in Denmark in 1904, about 70 countries have at some time used the Christmas Seal Sale to obtain money for the fight against tuberculosis and to spread information about how this disease can be conquered. The Seal, in fact, is used even where it is not associated with Christmas, as in Korea, India, China, and Japan. In India the Tuberculosis Seal Sale opens on Ghandi's birthday, October 2, and closes January 26, Republic Day.

"In addition to the international character of Christmas Seals, they are also of great interest locally," McGuigan continued. "For example, how will YOU use your Help Fight TB 1953 Greetings card?"

Buy Christmas Seals

Christmas Seals? In keeping with the Christmas tradition, you'll want to use them on your Christmas cards and letters, and decorate your packages with them. You may even want to use them on your envelopes when you pay your bills by mail. Many people feel

Rear View Mirror Must Be On Car By January 1, 1954

"If you own a motor vehicle that does not have a rear view mirror you must equip the vehicle with a mirror before January 1, 1954," Commissioner B. R. Caldwell of the California Highway Patrol pointed out today.

According to a new provision of the vehicle code every motor vehicle registered in California after January 1, 1954, must have a rear view mirror which reflects to the driver a view of the highway for a distance of at least 200 feet to the rear of the vehicle.

"This new section of the code, enacted by the legislature at the last session, clarifies legal requirements pertaining to rear view mirrors by making such equipment compulsory," Caldwell commented.

"The former provision called for such rear vision mirror in the event that the vehicle was so constructed or so loaded as to interfere with the driver's view to the rear."

"This new provision will add importance to the law requiring the driver of any vehicle to dim his headlights when approaching within 200 feet to the rear of any car during hours that lights are required, since every vehicle will have a mirror to reflect the blinding light from bright beams," he added.

How Can I?

Q. How can I sharpen scissors?

A. Try placing the neck of a glass bottle between the blades and closing them briskly upon it as if trying to cut it off. The smooth glass will glide the full length of the blades, from base to point, and fifteen or twenty repetitions is said to produce a good cutting edge.

Q. How can I make a good and inexpensive cold cream for the face and hands?

A. By mixing white wax, 12 grams; spermaceti, 24 grams; cocoa butter, 24 grams; oil of sweet almonds, 80 grams. Rub well into the pores.

Q. How can I clean light window shades?

A. Try cleaning the light window shades with a flannel cloth which has been dipped into ordinary flour.

Q. How can I clean a clock?

A. Saturate a small piece of cotton with kerosene and place on the floor of the clock, in a corner, and leave it there with the door closed for three or four days. The kerosene fumes cause the dirt to loosen and drop. Repeat this treatment as often as necessary.

Q. How can I prevent back strain?

A. Do not try to lift any heavy object with the back bent. Always crouch down and lift with a straight spine, making the weight come on the arms. A sprained back can be avoided in this way.

Q. How can I avoid sogginess in potatoes that have been steamed or boiled with the skins on?

A. By removing the skin immediately. Drain the potatoes as soon as they are done, and dry them by shaking the utensil over the flames.

Q. How can I boil eggs so that the whites will not be tough?

A. To soft-cook eggs, put them into a pan of water that is boiling hot. Remove the pan from the fire and let the eggs stand in it from eight to ten minutes. When cooked in this way, the whites of the eggs do not become tough.

Q. How can I prevent the daily newspaper from blowing off the porch?

A. Fasten a spring clothespin to the porch railing, or any convenient place near the front door, and any obliging paper carrier will be glad to snap it into this pin if asked to do so.

S.F. Will Test Air Raid Sirens Monday, Nov. 23

San Francisco air raid warning sirens will sound off at noon Monday (Nov. 23) for a test of mechanical fitness.

The general public will not take part in the test; traffic and normal pursuits will proceed as usual.

Sirens throughout the City will give a three-minute warbling blast at 12 o'clock noon. There will be one minute of silence and then the "All Clear"; three one-minute steady blasts with two-minute intervals. The test will be concluded at nine minutes past 12 o'clock.

At the same time, warning devices throughout the State will be given an identical test as scheduled by the State Civil Defense Administration. It will be the first of six such tests planned for the fourth Monday of each month through April.

Besides the sirens' test for mechanical fitness, audibility will be reported citywide and then charted, according to Rear Admiral A. G. Cook, USN (Ret.), Director of the San Francisco Disaster Council and Corps.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

You don't know how lucky you are, hearing from us at all this week. The 17th was our anniversary and we've been on a week-long celebration.

Long, long ago (eight years if you must have all the gory details) we were married at the Los Altos home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brown. It was quite a wedding, with the Browns at six o'clock the following morning reluctantly watching their last guest float from their home on iridescent bubbles of champagne.

Our anniversary party has been a little more exclusive, with ourselves the sole guests of the Browns on a trip to Reno, the home of the one-armed bandit and the super steak, and never have there been such steaks as those at the Christmas Tree, Guy Michael's contribution to the good life.

The Christmas Tree has a simple menu, requiring no weighty decisions at the end of a long, hard day. You order either steak or chops, and place your faith in Larry Petersen's skill with the massive barbecue to carry on from there. This faith is amply rewarded later, but should you become impatient Peter Lucas will mix a soothing potion guaranteed to calm frayed nerves.

Personally we prefer Filet Mignon, barely scared by the fire, but if you are a New York cut enthusiast, they've got 'em, king-size. A simple green salad with fat chunks of blue cheese in the dressing and a plump baked potato oozing butter completed our dinner. Blue cheese and crackers with coffee are available for those interested, but we licked the last drops of Cordon Rouge from the bottom of our glass and were content.

The Christmas Tree is a few short miles from Reno, down highway No. 395 to the Mt. Rose turn-off, and then a nine mile climb to the 7000 ft. level where a living tree, decorated for Christmas, towers over the Inn. The only element lack was snow, but Mr. Michael assured us that he will take care of this very shortly. If you need a map, we've got one, just drop us a line. Never will you find an opportunity to invest three cents to such advantage.

FIFTH CRUSADE REPORT DINNER MOST IMPORTANT

The fifth general United Crusade report dinner, scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Nov. 24 at the Peninsula Y.M.C.A. will be the most important so far, according to Harry A. Mitchell and T. Louis Chess, campaign co-chairmen. Reports from residential, business, commerce and industry and advance gifts divisions will be heard.

While returns to date are spotty in some sections of the county, the over-all picture shows north, central and south county running neck and neck in total percentages. The commerce and industry division shows considerable per capita gains in donations over last year's employee contributions to drives of the organizations combined in this year's Crusade. The "Chapter Plan" for industry is proving satisfactory to both management and labor, Crusade officials said.

A committee composed of members of both groups is set up to conduct in-plant solicitation and to function the year 'round, advising employees on how to secure needed services of agencies to which they contribute during the campaign.

Mitchell and Chess urge all county Crusade volunteers to make an effort to complete their assignments before the November 24 reports meeting. If possible, they state, they would like to see the campaign finished before the holidays.

Key Riders Face Hike In Fares

San Francisco and East Bay commuters have had bad news from the State Public Utilities Commission.

The Commission has granted the Key System an across-the-board rate increase which will total about $1,857,652 annually, effective Nov. 30. Only consolation for system riders was the Commission's ruling that Key must resume and maintain service at the same level as before the 77-day strike, and continue the A and B transbay trains. Key appealed to the Commission for permission to substitute the trains with buses.

FROZEN LOCKS

The problem of frozen door locks on your car, often experienced in winter sports areas, can be overcome quickly by heating the key with a match or cigarette lighter, says the California State Automobile Association.

In The Past

TEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Thursday, November 18, 1943. — Attractive Sergeant Kennedy, the former Miss Evelyn Clemoli, is stationed in the recruiting office at Omaha, Neb., as stenographer to a captain in the U. S. Marines. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Clemoli, 813 Brunswick street. Sgt. Kennedy, the widow of Raymond E. Kennedy, one of the first Daly City men to be killed in World War II, took her basic training at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Sgt. Kennedy, who is remembered in Daly City as winner of several state and national typing and shorthand contests, reports that she really enjoys her job and likes to feel that she is one of the girls who "free a Marine to fight."

Edward William Goldkuhl Sr., pioneer Daly City resident, active in the local fire department since 1907, passed away suddenly November 13. A resident here for the past 50 years, Goldkuhl made his home at 214 Miriam street. He is survived by his father, William Goldkuhl; his wife, Pearl Goldkuhl; his son, Edward William Goldkuhl Jr.

Joan Derrick celebrated her eighth birthday Monday at a party given by her mother, Mrs. I. G. Derrick, 47 Risel street.

Those present to help Joan celebrate were: Lois Cramer, Louise Berger, Patsy and Billy Slattery, Margaret Moore, Lorraine Bergstrom, Barbara Anderson, Irma Miller, Barbara Peter, Mary Koverman, Patsy Coffee, Barbara Lynch, Jean Eliason, Jo Beth and Paul Querner, Wanda and Lois Sadler, Juanita Crane, Diane Adams and Paul Derrick.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Friday, Nov. 19, 1938. — Northern California's greatest thoroughbred stars in modern times are matching strides over the historic Tanforan course during the fall meeting which opened Tuesday.

The racing spotlight of America is focused upon such titans of the turf as Seabiscuit, Main Man, Llagaroti, Finance, War Minster, Specify, Comet II, Fair Knighthood, Kayak II, to mention but a few.

Seabiscuit, the Charles S. Howard champion, returns to his home course — Tanforan — the unquestioned monarch of racing.

National book week was observed by the students of the Woodrow Wilson school by holding an interesting display of book reports.

Wilda Heath and Billy Braumoecker gave very interesting talks on the selection and care of books. Characters from favorite books were represented by Kathleen Dawe and John Janssen as "The Dutch Twins," Roselle Harmon as "Raggedy Ann," Robert Ranck as "Sandy—the Tin Soldier," Kathryn Brooks as the familiar figure "Red Riding Hood," and Jerrold Martin as the ever-popular "Tom Sawyer."

Mr. and Mrs. W. Irwin of Hanover street, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. D. Christopher, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hellmer and Mr. and Mrs. O. Kurlfink, motored to Menlo Park Saturday and spent the evening playing bridge as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Waldner of Menlo Park.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Friday, Nov. 28, 1928. — Two Daly City boys, Nick Sanbrails, of 153 Santa Cruz avenue, and Malcolm Hofen, of 32 Bernal avenue, last Sunday found the body of a man on the beach near the Olympic Golf club. The body was later identified as that of Bernard L. Hallmeyer, of San Jose. Hallmeyer is known in San Jose as the "man with many enemies," it being said that he was of a quarrelsome disposition and had many enemies.

The last meeting of La Fiesta club was held at the home of Miss Marge O'Connor, at 599 Evergreen avenue.

The regular business meeting was conducted by the club's president, Elsie Fahy, after which the hostesses for the evening, the Misses Marge and Tessie O'Connor, had the members adjourn to the dining room, where a dainty repast was served. The home was beautifully decorated with roses and autumn leaves, and those who had a most enjoyable evening were Elsie Fahy, Sarah Battaini, Audrey Diamond, Bobbie Heagney, Collette Dalton, Lorraine Wall, Christine Hume, Laura Figone, Edna Boyle, Florence Forsman, Nora Healey, Esther Hopson, Louise Clemen, and Marge and Tessie O'Connor.

Ridgely Cummings Reports

HOLLYWOOD HISTORY

I would guess that Tommy Lempertz is in his middle fifties, a rotund, red-faced man usually wearing tweeds, his coat pockets bulging with books, letters and magazines.

Tommy is a bibliophile. He used to be a newspaperman and occasionally gets research assignments. During one of these digging chores at the public library he came across documents indicating that Hollywood is fifty years old this year. On Nov. 14, 1903, an election was held to decide whether to incorporate the area with the fabulous name. The ayes had it, 88 to 77, and Hollywood became a city.

Tommy was somewhat excited by his discovery because it just happened he made it during the summer of 1953. He wrote a letter to the Hollywood Citizen-News pointing out the historical fact. It was published in the reader's column and that was all.

Not a man to give up easily, Lempertz went to the Chamber of Commerce and told officials there the advantages of celebrating the town's semi-centennial anniversary.

According to Tommy, they phooed his idea. They reminded him that Hollywood was no longer an incorporated city but an integral part of Los Angeles and his discovery didn't mean anything. Hollywood was annexed by Los Angeles in February, 1910, by simultaneous elections in both communities. Compelling reason behind the annexation was the inability of Hollywood to provide adequate water and sewage disposal facilities for itself.

So C of C officials told Tommy to forget about the anniversary, since incorporation lasted only seven years. He didn't, however. He sent a communique to Matt Weinstock, a columnist on the Daily News, downtown morning paper.

Matt gave the idea a plug, other things happened about which I am not informed, and low and behold, on this bright Sunday morning in November I am sitting before my typewriter, looking out the window at palm trees, with a history of Hollywood's fifty years before me.

Nowhere do I find, though I haven't read it all yet, a mention of Tommy Lempertz, the idea man who probably sparked the whole thing. It is called the "Golden Year" anniversary. Half a century of growth of the world's best known community, is the way the C of C puts it. Celebration includes old-time luncheons, service club banquets, special church services, and the opening of "Hollywood History" in a local department store. This last is a history of the movies, filling four floors and insured for $5 million.

Some of the facts recounted among the ads are provocative. There are a lot of ads because, as I neglected to mention, Hollywood business houses are marking the anniversary by a week of "Golden Year" sales. Since we live in a commercial era, there probably would have been no celebration without the shopping spree.

Among the historical data, mostly dug up by a fellow-scribbler named Sam Gordon, is the fact that in 1886 a Kansan named Harvey Henderson Wilcox established a ranch here. It covered an area now bounded by Sunset boulevard, Franklin and Whitley avenues, and Vine and Gower streets.

These are names to conjure with now. Lasky and De Mille filmed "The Squaw Man" in a vine street barn in 1913. That same year Griffith started "Birth of a Nation." And in rapid succession followed Chaplin and Coogan in "The Kid," Mary Pickford in "Tess of the Storm Country," Doug Fairbanks in his athletic opuses. The flickers had arrived.

But in 1886 the area was just the Cahuenga Valley, open country with a wonderful climate.

Mrs. Wilcox gave the area its name. On a train trip east she met a Chicago woman who talked about a summer home she had named Hollywood. The rancher's wife liked the sound and upon her return to California she prevailed upon her husband to use it for the ranch.

In 1897 the first postoffice with the name Hollywood was established. And in February of 1900 the first trolley from Los Angeles to the lemon-raising center went into service. (There's a chance here for a pun about shipping out lemons at the turn of the century and today, but I'll pass it up.)

Then in 1903 came incorporation, with Sanford Rich serving as the first Mayor. George Dunlop was the second and last.

For none of us liveth to himself. (Romans 14:7.)

PRAYER

Our gracious Lord, we have Thy Word that thou wilt grant us power through Thy Son, our Saviour. We also have Thy command to go forth into the world and make disciples among all nations. Help us, O Father, to exert our influence to that end. For our Saviour's sake. Amen.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 18

For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! (I Corinthians 9:16.)

PRAYER

Give us the courage, O Lord, to be faithful to Thee. May we be fearful only of the neglected opportunity and the witnessing for Thee which we leave undone. Help us lose no opportunity to witness to Thee. In His name. Amen.

THURSDAY, NOV. 19

The love of Christ controls us. (II Corinthians 5:14. R.S.V.)

PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, let Thy love control me in such a way today, that Thou wilt be seen through my deeds by all those who cross my way. Help me to be a source of hope to those who have no hope. For Thy name's sake. Amen.

FRIDAY, NOV. 20

I thank God, . . . when I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also. (II Timothy 1:3, 5.)

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we praise Thy holy name for praying mothers and fathers. We beseech Thee to increase their number in every nation. Help us to have praying hearts and devout minds. In the Master's name. Amen.

Opening Day Rites For Vista Grande Church This Sunday

It is opening day at the Vista Grande avenue Christian Church, located at 101 Vista Grande avenue and Santa Barbara, Daly City. Before acquiring this new property the congregation was known as the Ocean View Christian church. Howard Patrick McConnell is the minister.

It will be a Festival day for the congregation and its friends, beginning with the Bible School Sessions at 9:30 o'clock. Dr. McConnell will speak at 10:55 a.m. on the theme, "Rafter's that Ring." A dedication service will be held at 3 p.m. with guests present from many surrounding churches. Dr. Dallas Gladson, minister of the First Christian church of Oakland, will be the speaker.

The youth choir will sing, "The Lord's Prayer" (Mallotte), and Mrs. Margaret Smith accompanied by Winnie Sigars will sing "Bless this House" (Brahe).

Today Hollywood is a geographical subdivision of Los Angeles, an area housing a quarter of a million persons.

It boasts big hotels, famed restaurants, radio and TV broadcasting studios, a few motion picture studios though most of them have moved farther away from population centers, large theatres where the premieres are held, scores of light industries, modest homes and palatial ones, 13-story office buildings, which is the height limit here because of earthquake hazards, shops, stores and the many small enterprises such as my own, incidental to a world entertainment center.

But mostly Hollywood is a state of mind. Anyway, the Golden Year celebration is under way and Tommy Lempertz, the idea man, has moved on to other projects. His latest tale is about Beowulf, the early English writer.

Seems Tommy ran into a friend, stopped to chat, and remarked, "I picked up a fine Beowulf the other day for $150."

Said the friend: "Personally I live in a hotel but a dog is okay if you have the space."

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Where were you when the lights went out? Naturally being me, I was on the phone. Now that the first real storm of the season is over and the sunshine is with us again, people are going places and doing things. Have you ordered your turkey and made your fruit cakes yet? After all, Thanksgiving is next Thursday and happy holiday is wished one and all.

The biggest surprise of the week was the announcement of the three months old wedding of GEORGE SCALLY and MISS IRENE MALONEY. It was such a well kept secret that even the bride's sister, MRS. PAT ARNAUDO, was taken by surprise. After the announcement was made a dinner for the newlyweds was held at the home of Mrs. Arnaudo in their honor. Congratulations and best wishes to the new MR. and MRS. GEORGE SCALLY from all the neighbors.

The WOODROW WILSON PTA annual bazaar is being held today from 3 to 10 p.m. in the multi-use room of the school. A hot supper will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. and there will be sewing, baked goods, candy, grab bags, hot dogs, movies and a fun room for the children.

The PTA does a grand job for our children so let's all go and meet our friends and have a good time.

MRS. EMILY GARCIA of Los Banos avenue is another victim of the well known flu bug this week. Emily has done all the approved things one should do to get well but is still confined to her home. Get well soon, Emily, as all your friends miss seeing you.

A happy birthday is wished this week to MR. JOSEPH GARGAN of Goethe street, who celebrated his birthday with a family dinner given in his honor. Joe is well known for his activities in the Men's Club, Inc., and other parish affairs and one and all wish him the happiest of birthdays and much happiness in the coming year.

MR. and MRS. ABE GENSEL of Price street are the proud parents of a new daughter. MISS PATRICIA LYNN, who weighed 7 lbs., 5 ozs., was born Nov. 4 and has come home to be welcomed by her three brothers and one sister. Congratulations to the Gensel family on their newest addition.

Saturday, Nov. 14, saw one of the most beautiful weddings when HOWARD HEFFRON bestowed his name on MISS BEVERLEY HEAGNEY at Bethel Lutheran church, the REV. SCHROEDER officiating at a 7:30 p.m. ceremony. The bride was attired in the traditional wedding gown and the attendants were in pastel colors. MRS. HELEN STEWART was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were MISS ROSE HEFFRON, sister of the groom, MISS DOROTHY MALISE and MISS LONA BIGGS. The best man was JAMES PEDERSON, and the ushers duties were performed by JAMES WHALEN, JACK ENRIGHT and IRVIN SCHELEMA-DINE. The bride's mother, MRS. HILDA HEAGNEY, wore a blue lace ensemble with black velvet stole and black accessories. The groom's mother wore an aqua dress also with black accessories. Master DOUGLAS ROSEN was the ring-bearer and the flower girl was MISS KAREN GRIFFIN. After the beautiful ceremony a reception for family and friends was held at the Seabright Hall after which the young couple left for a honeymoon somewhere in Lake County. Both of these youngsters grew up in Daly City and graduated from Jeff. Mr.

Heffron is employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad and Bev works at the Bank of America in Colma. After their return home from Lake County the new MR. and MRS. HEFFRON will make their home on San Diego avenue. Best wishes from all the neighbors to a grand young couple on their wedding and for their future happiness.

Having one child home from school and sick in bed is enough but when one has two of them sick at the same time, that is almost too much. Little JUDY and DAVID MARKGRAF of San Jose avenue are the latest victims of the flu which just seems to hang on. Here's hoping that they get well soon and stay well.

Congratulations are extended this week to MR. and MRS. JOHN EASON of Hanover street who celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary last week. That is a long time to be married and one and all who know the Easons wish them much happiness in the future years to come.

Service men

Another furlough is over and another of the boys has left home for his new tour of duty with the Air Force. A/2c SYL CRUZ JR. left Sunday of Hanover street who celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary last week. That is a long time to be married and one and all who know the Easons wish them much happiness in the future years to come.

The U. S. Army is still running all-expense-paid tours. The latest to be going is PVT. "BUBBIE" LEAHY, son of MR. and MRS. BURT LEAHY of Miriam street. Bubbie will spend his holidays and some time afterwards in Germany. He left a week ago and will write and let us know just where he is as soon as possible.

Heard from the U. S. Navy this week, too. Seaman RICHARD EAGAN, son of the Arnold Eagens of Los Olivos avenue, is at present on the U. S. S. Boyd, a destroyer. Right now they are cruising around in Japanese waters and Dick hopes to be home in May. Dick really has it made when it comes to the chow as he is a cook — and who gets first chance at the food? . . . the cook.

A/1c RICHARD DICKSON, son of MR. and MRS. DICKSON of Crocker avenue, is still in England. Dick should be home soon as he has been there for a two-year period. He, like so many others, would like to be home for Christmas. Hello, Dick, and we all hope you make it in time for the holidays.

As one and all know, this column has printed the activities of the various organizations in behalf of the veterans in the hospitals. This week a letter was received which shows just how much their efforts are appreciated. This is the letter:

—"Eagles Auxiliary No. 1848: 'Will you please express to the members of your auxiliary the sincere appreciation of the Red Cross staff for the continued service they are giving to the patients at Letterman hospital. The men are always delighted with the home-made cookies which you bring. We especially want you to know that the patients of the isolation ward asked us to thank you for them.'

"They were delighted with the cookies and were most happy to be remembered by an outside organization. Thank you again for your many kindnesses. Miss Jean Edmonds, AFD-Recreation"

Does anything else need to be said?

MRS. MARY WAKEFIELD seems to have a personal interest in the Vets' welfare. She not only spends many hours making the bags for the Christmas presents that the boys are going to get but she also donated $10 out of the goodness of her heart for gifts to go in the bags. This is the Christmas party being given by the Hillcrest Circle, U.A.O.D., and any and all past, present or future Druids interested in getting in on the fun may do so by calling PL. 5-0902.

Seaman BILL BEECHER, son of the William Beechers of Santa Barbara avenue, was one of the fellows who got a chance to get home for the weekend. To the surprise of his mother, Bill came home alone. Generally they bring at least one or two of the fellows with them. Bill has a good chance to be home for the holidays as he is stationed at Moffett Field near Sunnyvale.

The dance at OLPH, sponsored by Our Lady of Perpetual Help Men's Club, Inc., held last Saturday night, was a huge success. One and all had such a good time that the Men's club have decided to make this a monthly affair. If you missed the first one watch for the date of the next dance and come on and join in the fun. All your friends and neighbors will be there and you can bring the youngsters, as baby sitters are furnished for all school age children.

MRS. GLADYS DUNCAN has finally decided that she has worked long enough. She has turned in her keys, combs and bobbie pins and has retired from the beauty business. LYNNE BOSKEY, for whom she worked for over three years, knows it will be hard to replace her but she does need someone. Anyone interested in pin curls as a daily diet may call Daly City Beauty Shop, PL. 5-0902.

Men of Daly City sit up and take notice! MRS. CLARA GIACOMA of the Central Club bowling team is really one to watch. Last week she bowled two nights. The first night she won the turkey shoot for scoring in three frames and the second night she bowled over two hundred twice to receive her pin and also to tie with two others for the prize of the evening for high score.

MRS. MARTHA WEGNER of Crocker avenue had a birthday last week. Many of her lifelong friends arrived to wish her happy birthday and she received many beautiful gifts. Happy birthday, Martha, from your neighbors and mine.

The teachers of Crocker Elementary school were given a well deserved treat last week. The members of the Crocker PTA, headed by MRS. ECKERT, their president, held a pot luck luncheon for them. It had to be served on a come-when-you-can basis as Crocker school is on double sessions and the afternoon teachers came first and then when the morning teachers were finished it was their turn. Many of the ladies who not only served the luncheon but also brought the food are members of the Scouts in one capacity or another. It seems that those who are the busiest always find time to do more.

Well, neighbors, another week's news has come and gone. Next week is Thanksgiving and there will be much to do for all. Many of the boys will be home for the day but many more will be away from home for the first time. We could remember them on this day and send them a card. If you hear from any of them let me know, and the phone is still PL. 5-6482. I'll be waiting to hear from you. 'Bye now.

FOUR CASES OF POLIO HERE DURING OCTOBER

Four cases of poliomyelitis were reported for the Daly City-Colma area during the month of October, according to the morbidity report of the county health and welfare department.

However, this was below the total for the same month the previous year, which was five.

It was explained by the health department that incidence of polio generally rises during the fall months.

Throughout the county polio hit 17 times during October this year, as compared with 30 times for the same period, 1952.

Two cases of measles were recorded for this area during October, the report added.

One incidence of Hepatitis and one of Scarlet Fever were reported for Colma during October.

Jester-LoVette Wed In Reno Recently

Married at the First Methodist Church in Reno, Nevada, recently were Ruby Ann LoVette and Bill J. Jester. The Reverend Arthur V. Thurman officiated.

Mrs. Vivian Crispi, 1 Parma street, is a sister of the bride. The bride, who was given away by her sister, Millicent Walker, wore a white ballerina gown embellished with seed pearls and rhinestones.

The maid of honor, Jeannette LoVette, sister of the bride, wore a bronze satin ballerina gown trimmed with black velvet.

John D. Walker was the best man.

A reception was held on November 3, at the home of Mrs. Vivian Crispi in Daly City.

The new Mrs. Jester attended San Mateo High school. The groom, who attended high school in Memphis, Tennessee, is now in the Navy. He left for Japan on November 13.

Mrs. Jester will reside at 1 Parma street while her husband completes his enlistment in the Navy.

Fashion Date Tonight For Serra Auxiliary

Completing plans for Serra auxiliary's Fashion date tonight (Friday), Mrs. Charles Fracchia, general chairman, has recently named the models who will display the late fall collection from Madeiroselle. Coming from the ranks of the auxiliary, these include Mrs. James Prickett of San Mateo, chairman of models, and Mesdames Adrian Pitt, John Curley and Alfred Krause, also of that city. Mrs. Edgar Daniels of Burlingame, Mrs. Mart Bushnell of South San Francisco, Mrs. Edward Myall of Redwood City and Mrs. William Hickey of Belmont complete the roster.

Of special interest will be eight boys and girls, chosen from the Peninsula high school set, who will represent the trend in teenage fashion. Judy Hunter of San Mateo and Arlene Lugliani of San Carlos are students at Notre Dame, in Belmont. Sydney Bonalanza from South San Francisco and Ann Duffy of Burlingame attend Mercy high school in Burlingame. The boys, all attending Serra high, include Ronald Cecchi of Millbrae, Ernest Schenone of Burlingame, and James Jackson and Alexander McDermont, both from San Mateo.

Though a few tickets for the benefit may be purchased at the door, members and friends of Serra auxiliary are urged to make their reservations thru Mrs. Joseph Sweed, 307 Avila road, and Mrs. Michael Carella, 255 W. Santa Inez, in San Mateo.

RUBY ANN LO VETTE and Bill J. Jester were married recently in Reno, Nevada. The new Mrs. Jester will live with her sister, Mrs. Vivian Crispi, 1 Parma street, Daly City, while her husband completes his enlistment in the Navy. The groom is from Memphis, Tennessee.

CROCKER PTA MEMBERS SEE FOOD SLIDES

Tuesday, November 10, Crocker PTA's regular business meeting was called to order by Mrs. John Eckert, president. An enjoyable character reading entitled "Don't Envy Other People" was given by Mrs. Betty Price.

Mrs. Cleo Felsing, a home economics representative from PG&E, was introduced to those assembled by Mrs. George Freeland, program chairman.

The gasps! ohs! and ahs! which resounded from the darkened library room was definite evidence of the full capacity crowd which viewed the delectable food portrayed on the colored slides which were shown by Mrs. Felsing.

Decorative cakes, salads, desserts, as well as hamburgers and spaghetti dishes were shown amid settings and decorations designed for parties for all age groups. At the conclusion of the slides she passed out packets of recipes, covering most of the dishes portrayed, to all those present.

A very entertaining recital of four songs was presented by several members of Mrs. Stump's third grade class.

At this point all children present accompanied the baby sitters to a classroom for a play period during the business meeting.

Mrs. Eckert presided over the meeting and appointed a new committee on bylaws, consisting of Mrs. Anne Eason, chairman, Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, Mrs. George Freeland, Mrs. Dolores Antonio and Mrs. John Eckert.

A letter from the Daly City library was read announcing Children's Book Week, which is to be the third week in November.

The report of the budget committee for the current year was read and adopted.

At this point, and as a result of the wonderful slides, everyone was very anxious to partake of the delicious cakes and coffee which were provided by the mothers of Mrs. Koenig's room. The meeting was therefore adjourned in favor of refreshments.

North Peninsula ORT Fashion Show Planned

The Northern Peninsula chapter, Women's American ORT, will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Edgar Hart, 225 Del Monte, South San Francisco, November 24, at 8 p.m.

The program will be a "Knit Your Own" fashion show, followed by a social evening of cards, and Mah Jongg. All those interested in attending, please contact the membership chairman, Mrs. Albert DeNola, 2508 Poppy drive, Burlingame, Diamond 4-8167, or Mrs. Hart, Juno 8-6907.

General chairman of the dinner was David K. Blair of H. Liebes & Co., with Henry R. Rolph, T. S. Petersen Jr., and Henry E. Sloss as vice-chairmen.

Village Notes

By Mrs. Edith Warmoth (PL 5-8026)

Well that storm which blew in really blew in some news for us to report:

VILLAGE LANE
Little Linda Henry had a fourth birthday Saturday. Her party will be delayed for a few days because of illness.

GARDEN LANE
The George Irvines had as a houseguest last weekend Mrs. Irvine's sister, Mrs. Stern Altshuler from San Marino.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Larsen received a visit from Mr. Larsen's father and stepmother from Sauri Arabia.

MACARTHUR
It was a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Monks. He arrived Saturday and weighed in at 10 lbs., 1 oz.

This bouncing lad will be called Steven Michael and his arrival has made his mother Ray and sister Carolyn very proud.

BEECHWOOD
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morris on the arrival of a baby girl. She made her first appearance November 2 and weighed 6 lbs., 5 oz. She will be named Marie Elizabeth.

FOOTHILL
Mr. and Mrs. Remo Cuniberti were guests of the Morton Roaches of Buri-Buri last Saturday evening.

MANILA
Mrs. Tarp Andrews has left for New York for a month's visit.

Mrs. John Silva welcomed her son home from Korea. He is now on a furlough.

BRADLEY
It was a girl for the S. P. Cashes November 16.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Chausse and children, Susie and Melanie and Ruth have moved to San Francisco.

88TH
Happy birthdays were extended to Robert Parkinson Wednesday, Nov. 18, on his second birthday.

WASHINGTON
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dalvaro and two children, former residents of B. V., have returned to resume residence here once again. They have been living in Maine for the past year.

Linda Peters is once again back to normal after a bout with the chicken pox.

CHURCH
The executive committee of the Womens Association of Broadmoor Community Presbyterian church held a meeting Monday evening to discuss business for the new year.

The Hannah Circle met at the home of Mrs. Chris Gnesios Wednesday evening, November 18.

Goodbye for now and be sure to read this way again next week.

TROOP 84 MOTHERS HOLD GATHERING

The Mother's Auxiliary of Boy Scout Troop 84 met at the home of Mrs. Edmond Cyr, 14 Sullivan street, Garden Village on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Frank Garretson was co-hostess.

Mrs. Chester Mattison, president, reported that eight of the merit badge series of books had been presented to the troop at the last Court of Honor, and that the remaining books in the series had been ordered and would be given to the troop by the Mother's group. Telephone chairmen were appointed, the mother of a boy from each patrol being chosen. The three baskets which will be passed to each mother whose son is a member of the troop was started. These baskets will be filled with homemade bake goods or hand work, and the money secured from this project will be used as needed by the troop.

Plans for a parents party with the Scout dads were discussed and a date in December will be secured for this party, which will be given in the Broadmoor community center.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Roach, 528 C street, Colma, with Mrs. Joan Tomlinson assisting. The regular meeting date was set on the second Tuesday of each month, and all Scout Mothers of Troop 84 are invited to attend. The ladies at the last meeting were: Mrs. Robert Roach, Mrs. Lloyd Brouhard, Mrs. Wm. Spry, Mrs. Chester Mattison, Mrs. Joan Tomlinson, Mrs. Larry Green, Mrs. LeRoy Krueger, Mrs. Jack Cowden, Mrs. John Fies, Mrs. Frank Garretson, Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. D. Melani, Mrs. Joseph Braun, and Mrs. Arthur Shanoian.

Crowd Of 100 At Westlake Canasta

A crowd of 100 braved the storm last Friday evening to attend the Westlake PTA Thanksgiving Canasta party. School officials, teachers, members and friends enjoyed three forty-five minute games of Canasta. As the end of each forty-five minute period approached, the room rang with moans and groans of players trying frantically to build up points before the sound of the whistle.

Prizes, donated by Westlake merchants, were awarded by chairman Mrs. Jack Hagopian. Among the many winners were Mrs. E. Molkenbuhr Sr., who took home the sixteen pound turkey; Sam Agnello, winner of the large and beautiful fruit basket; Mrs. Ralph Sylvester, winner of the ham; and H. Z. Weibel, who was awarded the booby prize. Thirty-four prizes were awarded during the evening.

Refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served following the game. Mrs. Hagopian thanked the various committee chairmen for their hard work and complimented the decorating committee for their lovely decorations in the Thanksgiving motif.

Daly City Eagles Cancel Holiday Whist Sessions

Due to the fact that the next whist game will fall on Wednesday, November 25, the night before Thanksgiving, Daly City Eagles, Aerie 1848, have postponed all whist sessions until after the holidays.

A monthly series will be started in January, 1954, and will last until June.

Malcewicz-Loberg In Colma Nuptial Rites

Joan Marie Malcewicz became the bride of Robert Frederick Loberg at Holy Angels church, Colma, on November 7.

Given in marriage by her father, Joan was gown in a Chantilly lace dress with satin apron effect and bustle with a very pretty portrait neckline. She wore an elusion veil.

The maid of honor was Roberta Rohlfes and bridesmaids were Iola Kenney, Frances Mulcrevy and Nancy Kenney, all classmates of the bride at the San Francisco College for Women. They wore emerald green silk and acetate dresses which had very full ballerina length skirts with shoulder straps and rope tie at the waist.

Corresponding to the brides head-dress they wore oak leaf crowns that had clusters of yellow Fujii Chrysanthemums at the back. Their bouquets were matching chrysanthemums and oak leaves.

The church was decorated with beautiful autumn flowers of Fujii Chrysanthemums and oak leaves.

The young couple were married by Rev. George Guzewicz of Binghamton, N.Y., uncle of the bride, who also married the brides mother and father 23 years ago. Also here for the happy occasion was an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Lew Wolf of Buffalo, N.Y.

Raymond Loberg was his brother's best man.

The reception took place immediately after the ceremony at the Lakeside Country club.

After a honeymoon trip south, the young couple moved into an apartment in Sea Cliff.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malcewicz of 26 Garden Lane, Garden Village. She was graduated from San Francisco College for Women.

The benedict is a graduate of the University of San Francisco.

Official Opening Of Boy Scout Troop 129 Is Held In Broadmoor Community Center

Official opening of Boy Scout Troop No. 129 was held in the Broadmoor community center Monday night.

Art Slindle, field executive of the San Mateo Council, presented the charter for the new troop to the sponsoring organization, Lake Merced Post 9921, VFW. Commander A. L. Cuykendall accepted the charter on behalf of the Post.

Colors were presented to the new troop by the following members of the Post: Tom McNally, Herb Stettler, George Reich and Mr. Nelson.

Chairman of the troop committee is Ed Schaffer, aided by the following: Nelson, Parker, Greenwood, Stettler, Cuykendall and Spillman.

The scouts were presented with their tenderfoot pin by Commissioner H. Brown.

The senior patrol leader of the new troop is Scott Parker, while patrol leaders under him are Scouts Schaffer, Hoffman and Greenwood.

Honored guests for the evening were Ken Hansen, scoutmaster of Troop 84, and his assistants, Leroy Kruger and Mr. Hilton.

New scoutmaster is Ray Dage. He will be aided by Clarence Lair and Joe Monks.

Mothers of the new troop served refreshments.

Troop leaders extended their thanks to all parents attending

FORTY-NINERS Harry Babcock, end; Hal Miller, tackle; and Pete Brown, center, who have what it takes to attract attention during a pro football game, find out from Dixie Schultheis what it takes to attract attention during the halftime entertainment. Dixie is a solo drum majorette with the San Francisco '49er band.

DC'S DIXIE SCHULTHEIS PERFORMS AS MAJORETTE AT 49ER'S KEZAR GAMES

Puts In 15 Hours Work Each Week — But Sees All Home Games Free

Dixie Schultheis, 19-year-old blonde clerk for Pacific Telephone, sees every pro football game at Kezar stadium for free—but it's no cinch.

To get that free seat, she puts in at least 15 hours of hard work each week.

She earns the pass by doing solo drum majorette routines with the San Francisco '49er Band, which performs halves at home games.

An enthusiastic '49er fan, Dixie sees every game—the home games at Kezar and the out-of-town games on TV.

"Hope They'll Win" "I've been following the '49ers every year for some time," said Dixie. "I keep hoping they'll win the championship."

Dixie and some 40 other majorettes and performers add color and variety to the stunts and drills of the '49er band. Joe McGighe, director, says he can't remember a time the band has marched without having at least one majorette out in front.

"We like majorettes and so does the public," says McGighe. "Their eye-catching routines add beauty and interest to our performances."

No Pay Job Majorettes receive no pay other than a pass to the game. And they are expected to provide their own equipment—batons, boots, costumes and headaddresses. These outfits, which range in price anywhere from $10 to $75 or more, wear out quickly. Some majorettes have as much as $400 invested in costumes and equipment.

With so much time and expense involved, why, then, are majorettes so willing to perform? (The '49er band has never had trouble in getting them.)

One expert compares being a drum majorette with going to charm school. Majorettes gain assurance, gracefulness and poise—and they have fun, too. For that reason many teen-age girls have taken up majoretting in the past few years.

Habit Forming "Being a drum majorette is habit forming," explains Dixie Schultheis. "It just gets into your blood, I guess. I'm forever wanting to pick up my baton for a few twirls, and whenever I hear a band playing a march I have a yen to be marching along with the music."

Dixie likes majorette work because not only does she get to see the '49er games, but she often has opportunities to travel. The '49ers don't take the band with them on out of town trips, but Dixie has gone to baton camps and festivals throughout Northern California.

Perfecting drum majorette routines and skills takes patience and practice. After working full time five days a week for Pacific Telephone as a specialized records clerk, Dixie goes home to 340 Hillside boulevard in Daly City and practices her baton twirling in the living room at least two hours at night.

Takes Lessons On weekends she takes majorette lessons, gives lessons, rehearses for '49er performances and then practices some more with her partner, Corrine "Corky" Noble, also of Daly City.

And, as if all this didn't take up enough of her spare time, Dixie also does tumbling, dancing and juggling to help with her majorette skills.

Every Friday night she her partner entertain patients at Letterman General Hospital with tumbling acts and dance routines. (These shows are sponsored by the YMCA Girls' Service Organization.)

Can Also Juggle Dixie and Corrine took up juggling last year in order to perfect a baton juggling act. Now they can juggle six batons between the two of them.

The two girls have been working as majorette partners since they were classmates at Jefferson High school. According to Dixie, they have been doing projects together since they were both in the second grade.

When they were sophomores, they both started taking lessons from Robert Olmstead in Palo Alto on the same day. At the time they were training to be drum twirling Dixie and Corrine have worked up many duet routines. They even have signals worked out for retrieving batons when they accidentally drop them to make it look as if dropping the baton was just part of the act.

Wins Two Trophies

As a reward for outstanding performance majorettes are given trophies and medals. Dixie has received two trophies and a medal for her work with the '49ers. She also won a medal in a Palo Alto majorette contest last February.

Besides her two years as a '49er majorette, Dixie has worked with many other bands and drill teams. She has marched with the Twin Peaks Native Daughters Drum Corps, the San Francisco City College Band, the Daly City Band, the San Francisco Telephone Girls' Drum Corps and the San Francisco State College band.

Dixie hasn't decided just yet whether she wants to become a professional drum majorette. A few paying jobs for majorettes open up every once in a while.

"If I should decide to go into the profession seriously, I'd like to be a teacher," she said. "In the meantime I'll keep on twirling my baton for the '49ers."

WHEN ACCIDENT OCCURS

If you have an automobile accident, stop and render aid to any injured persons. Also notify local law authorities or the California Highway Patrol if there are injuries and fatalities and make a full report of the accident within 24 hours. It is also necessary to make a financial responsibility report to the Department of Motor Vehicles within 15 days if damage to either vehicle exceeds $100 or if someone is injured or killed, advises the California State Automobile Association.

INDIAN 20s TOP SSF FIVE: GRAB OFF NPAL CROWN

JEFF HARRIERS SECOND IN PAL CROSS-COUNTRY

Jim Rector's Fifth Indians' Best Effort; Team Faces Big Test Today In NCS Meet

Fresh from a second-place effort in the PAL meet last week, Jefferson High school's cross-country team will vie in the North Coast Section finals at Palo Alto this afternoon (Friday) at 3:45 p.m.

Competing against harriers from ten PAL schools last Thursday the Indians finished second to Palo Alto. The Palo Altians had 41.5 points, while the Jeffs compiled 92.

The Indians best showing was turned in by Jim Rector, who toured the 1.72 mile Stanford golf course route in 8:53, good enough for a fifth out of the 70 runners competing. His time tied the PAL record established last year, but Roger Stevens of Palo Alto had already rung up a new mark in coping first with a 8:34.9 performance.

Rich Sambrini of Jefferson went the distance in 9:01, good enough for a ninth place. Finishing next in order for the Indians were: Gary Harris, 23rd, 9:22; Bob Pool, 26th, 9:24; and Clark Souza, 29th, 9:32.

Coach Ernie Ribera indicated he was more than pleased with his harriers efforts last week, but doesn't expect any miracles today in the NCS competition.

Although only the first five finishers from each team count in the final scoring, the actual team consists of seven men.

In addition to runners scoring for Jefferson, Larry Allen and Cliff Lawson will also compete today.

Final scoring in last Thursday's meet was as follows: Palo Alto, 41.5; Jefferson, 92; Carlmont, 107; Sequoia, 108.5; Capuchino, 122; Burlingame, 148; Willow Glen, 174; Lincoln, 183; Menlo-Atherton, 191; and San Jose, 196. (Team scoring the least number of points wins. Points are based on place taken. For instance: Runner scoring second receives two points.)

Alta Roofers Take Over Command In Adult Cage League

Alta Roofing took over command in the Adult Basketball league Monday night by rapping Sarto A.C., 56 to 43.

Alta's Center Harvey Cranow set a brisk pace with 21 points on nine field goals, three free throws. Larry Blanchard of the athletic club, scoring 15 points, kept his club in the game all the way until the final period.

At the close of the first quarter Sarto led, 11 to 10. The A.C. still had slim control at the end of the half with a 24-23 lead.

Alta went out in front at the end of the third period with a 40-35 margin and were never in danger from there on out.

The win gave Alta undisputed first in the circuit with a 3-0 mark. Idle this week were Gigli Plumbing and Ralph's Cleaners, who jointly hold down second spot with 1-1 marks. Next in order is Sarto, with a 1-2 record.

USC-UCLA Game Takes Top Spot On TV Saturday

America's vast television audience will get its first 1953 look at UCLA's All-American halfback, Paul Cameron, Saturday afternoon (Nov. 21) when he leads his team against Southern California in the General Motor TV Football Game of the Week at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The game will be televised over the 90-station, nationwide NBC television network starting at 1:15 p.m. (PST) Saturday.

During the past two seasons, the hard charging Cameron established himself as one of the greatest backs ever to play in the Pacific Coast conference. He has more than lived up to that reputation so far this year.

The Rose Bowl champions of Southern Cal, however, do not plan to sit idly by and let Cameron run over them. Coach Jess Hill will present a defense designed to stop Cameron and his UCLA team mates. In addition, Trojan rooters are quick to point out, Southern Cal has an offense of its own which it plans to use Saturday afternoon.

For UCLA, there is the added incentive of a 1954 Rose Bowl bid. Southern California, winner over Wisconsin in the 1953 Rose Bowl, is ineligible for the 1954 Tournament of Roses game under a new Pacific Coast ruling which prohibits any Pacific Coast team from playing in the Rose Bowl more than once in two years.

Locals Meet Menlo Atherton, Southern Champs, For Title

Revengeing an earlier upset defeat, Jefferson high school's 20's topped South San Francisco Tuesday in the warrior gym, 33-26, to become undisputed Northern Peninsula Athletic league titleholder for 1953.

The win, giving the 20's a 10-2 record, entitled them to sole possession of the northern division crown and the right to meet Menlo-Atherton, southern division winner, in a three-game series to determine over-all league champion.

A win by South City Tuesday over the Indians would have placed the teams in a deadlock for first in northern division standings with nine wins, three losses, apiece.

Double Win The local 10's made it a success day for Jefferson Tuesday as they also topped arch-rival South City, 23-22. The victory gave the little Indians an 8-4 record and third place in the northern division.

Coach Miks Orlich's 20's started slowly and equally inaccurately Tuesday against the team that had bested them earlier in the season, 42-41.

At the end of the first quarter the Jeffs could claim only a token lead of 9-8.

Local basketball filberts will get a chance to see Jefferson high school's championship 20's team in action Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the Daly City gym when they meet Menlo-Atherton in the second game of the PAL play-offs.

First contest was played yesterday afternoon (Thursday) at Menlo Park, after the Record's press time.

In the event each team wins a game in the first two meetings, the third encounter will be played at a neutral court yet to be named.

Working in close to the basket with smoothly executed plays, the Indians blew countless opportunities on easy lay-ups.

At the end of the half things were balanced at 13 all.

During the first period Orlich's charges attempted 30 shots, making good on only six.

THREE TEAMS SHARE FIRST PLACE HONORS

Nobody in the Daly City-Colma Bowling league has been able to hoard first place more than two weeks running, and Tuesday's play at Brentwood proved no exception.

The Daly City Eagles, who held undisputed first place last week, were forced to share the honors with two other squads, as they dropped a couple to Paul's Flowers.

Paul's moved into the coveted spot by virtue of their duo of wins, as did Thur Meat Co., who copped a pair from the Orphans. The three place setters are tied up with 18-12 win-loss marks.

Shading all other performances Tuesday was the efforts of Vince & Fred's who, bowling with a four-man team, set a new high team game standard of 1013, besting Thur's 988 of last year by a solid margin.

Two factors made the feat even more sensational. The tavern tappers were bowling from scratch and were without the services of their fifth man, Vince Merlo, who is honeymooning. Merlo's average is 155 so, according to league rules, they had to figure his average in the total, minus ten pins.

Those who compiled the amazing pile-up of pins were Nate Pearlman, 214; Ed Ebinger, 208; Lloyd Selmi, 213; and Tony Santos, 233; along with Merlo's minus ten average of 145.

Understandably, Selmi racked up high individual series, with a 581, while teammate Santos's 233 was top individual game for the evening. Behind the three league-leaders after Tuesday's competition were Daly City-Colma Lions and Pearson & Rector, each with 17-13 chalkings to date.

The Lions suffered two setbacks at the hands of Jack's Inn to lose a little ground.

Next week's alley outing finds the local Lions tussling with Paul's Flowers in a contest that could have heavy bearing on the first-place line-up.

The Eagles meet Jack's Inn, while Thur faces Ralph's Cleaners in other important entanglements.

In the Turkey "Shoot" event held Tuesday, local grocer Joe Belli won one of the fat gobblers. Every bowler that rolls strikes on the third, fifth and seventh frames is presented with a bird, providing he has paid the small "entrance" fee for the shoot.

around in the third period, leading 22 to 21 at the end of that session.

Hitting a high percentage of shots attempted, the Jeffs moved away in the final period to annex the championship.

The Jefferson coach said after the game that it could have been a rout had the local 20's been finding the target.

Kalinin Shines Forward Dick Kalinin, the most consistent scorer all season, led the attack with 15 points. Orlich cited defensive play of Forward Ron Anguillo, Center Larry Kennedy, and Guard George Miller as largely responsible for the win.

During the contest, the South San Francisco Indians were given little chance to display any offense, due to the ball-hawking and defensive strategy of the Indians.

As Orlich pointed out, the only thing that saved South City from being slaughtered was Jefferson's inaccuracy.

The game marked the last regular PAL cage encounter for seniors Kalinin and Miller, but it left a sizeable looking roster to bolster next year's 30's and varsity and gladden the eye of Orlich.

No. 2 For Orlich This marked the second 20's championship for Mentor Orlich.

He accomplished the feat first in 1950. Prior to that, 1944 was the last 20s team to take the honor. During this season the Warriors and Carlmont were the only teams claiming a win over the 20s.

Wind-up of the regular season found Jefferson's Anguilo and Kalinin almost a shoo-in for All-PAL honors, while Kennedy and Miller stand an outside chance for the mythical team, their fate dependent on the sometimes one-eyed observations of southern peninsula pundits.

Rochi Paces 10s

For Daly City's 10s, it was George Rochi leading the way Tuesday, dropping in 11 points. Senior Lee Poston played his last game for the Indians, but the remainder of the lightweight, freshmen and sophomores, will be taking them off the backboards again next year.

During the regular season Rochi and Poston led the scoring department for the 10s.

Wally King, Rochi and George Ruelas are the logicals for 10s division PAL honors this year.

Broadmoor Youth Finishes Training

FORT CAMPBELL, Kentucky—Corporal Edward Perrins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perrins, of 1515 Sweetwood Drive, Broadmoor Village, recently completed "Jumpmaster School" while serving with company E, 511th Airborne Infantry Regiment, of the famed 11th Airborne Division now stationed at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

The one week course which Cpl. Perrins successfully completed, stressed safety precautions, parachuting techniques and jumpmaster responsibilities. Those successfully completing the course are qualified to lead parachutists from an aircraft in flight.

Prior to his entrance in the Army, Cpl. Perrins attended San Mateo Junior College. He received his basic training at Camp Roberts, California, and graduated from the Basic Airborne School at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, in July of 1951.

At the present time, Cpl. Perrins is T1E NCO within the company.

TWO TIPS ON BRAKES

Don't ride the brake pedal because, brake clearance being smaller than ever, the slightest pressure on the pedal may cause dragging.

Occasionally when brake linings have worn unevenly, points out the National Automobile Club, the car owner will attempt to "get by" with having only the most severely worn lining replaced. This may be justifiable when all the linings are new and one has been burned through unequal adjustment. At no other time should it be done.

Pfc. Raymond Veit Gets Assignment

FORT CAMPBELL, Kentucky—Private First Class Raymond Veit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Veit of 115 Moltke street, Daly City, was recently assigned to Company E, 511th Airborne Infantry Regiment, of the famed 11th Airborne Division now stationed at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Prior to his enlistment in the Army in January, 1951, Pfc. Veit was employed by the Evergood Pork Store in San Francisco. He received his Army basic training at Camp Roberts, California, and graduated from Basic Airborne School at Fort Benning, in July of 1951.

Pfc. Veit is now assigned as a driver within the company.

KEEP GLASS CLEAN

A clean windshield not only improves visibility but is handy in other ways, points out the National Automobile Club. For instance, when it rains there will be no abrasive clinging to it to scratch the glass when the windshield wiper is brought into use.

When on a long trip always keep the rear window clean. Fast driving creates a vacuum that pulls the dirt onto the back of the car. A dirty window prevents use of the rear view mirror.

Side windows also should be kept clean for best possible visibility.

Get-Together

A get-together dinner at the San Remo restaurant was arranged by the social committee of Colma school for its faculty. Husbands and wives were invited.

Those who attended were: Dr. H. Gunter, who formerly taught at San Francisco State college; Miss M. Tobias, principal Colma school; Miss M. Traynor, principal of Jefferson; Miss E. Slater, Miss D. Duckert, Mrs. J. Burr, Mrs. A. Mattison, Mr. and Mrs. P. Sobol, Mr. D. Haujardo, physical education coordinator; J. Parks, G. Walters, and J. Hough.

Pleasant conversation together with a delicious dinner made for a thoroughly enjoyable evening. Another social gathering in the near future is being eagerly anticipated by the faculty of Colma.

Award Winners

Three eighth grade boys of Colma school were presented awards in the office of the principal on Friday, November 13. John Jensen and Claude Anger received a framed certificate of merit while Ruben Martinez received a newspaper trophy with an engraved plate and a carrier press card as a first class carrier.

These awards were presented to the boys for meritorious service and periodic advancement.

Local Girl Is Central Figure In Comedy, Arsenic & Old Lace

As the holiday season draws nearer family ties draw closer. Mother begins to worry about how she can get great-aunt Matilda and Cousin Josh and all the in-laws around the table. No off-stage family could have to cope with eccentricities as hilarious and unbelievable as the Brewster family in "Arsenic and Old Lace," the farce to be presented by the San Mateo Junior College Players on Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 20 and 21. No normal family can be appreciated until this one has been seen.

Aunt Abby and Aunt Martha are the central figures in the fast-moving satire on murder-mysteries which unfolds in their rambling old home. Marilyn McKenna will bring to her role of Aunt Abby a delightful sense of humor which makes Abby very comic without burlesque of character. Audiences who saw "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" last spring will recall the finish with which Marilyn played Arabella, creating the mannered movements and speech of the Victorian period with complete naturalness. Miss McKenna is also a pianist of concert ability and has been heard in many programs presented by the College.

The other eccentric aunt, Martha, is played by Jan Sproule, a graduate of Jefferson Union High school, where she was very active in drama. Her role of Aunt Kate, a sixty-five-year-old in "Personal Appearance" has given her experience in the difficult transformation of a college girl to a gently insane old lady who combines murder with charity in a thoroughly ridiculous situation.

One of the nephews in "Arsenic and Old Lace" is Jonathan, maniacal killer of twelve, who is so villainous that he provokes constant laughter. Bob Steele has drawn on his experience as an actor at Burlingame High school and with Hillbarn Theater to achieve just the perfect balance of humor and horror in his portrayal of Jonathan. His versatility can be judged by his having played three roles in "The Fan" at Hillbarn last summer and Dr. Gibbs in "Our Town" at Burlingame High.

Brother to Jonathan is Teddy, who thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt and spends his time on the stage charging up San Juan Hill. George Monk romps through this part with abandon, ignoring everyone who does not recognize him as the great Roosevelt. Patrons of Sequoia High school plays will remember George as the father in "June Mad," and the Russian Vasya in "Squaring the Circle." Fortunately there is one sane member of the family, Mortimer, the drama critic who discovers and solves the murder mysteries and carries on his own romance successfully. Ray Coloma, a seasoned actor with The Players, was last seen in the college theater as Robert Browning in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street."

Pat Taylor plays Elaine, the ingenue who goes through the play completely befuddled by the unexpected developments. Pat is very active in student affairs at the college, is banner bearer for the marching band, and has played in light operas as well as comedies.

A nefarious plastic surgeon, Dr. Einstein, joins the Brewster murder enterprise in an assumed alcoholic daze. Herb Bryant brings this character to life with a thick German dialect and a nicely balanced humor.

Supporting roles are played by Bill Nicholson, Bryan Parks, Earl Riley, Bob Murphey, Bob Giamario, and Frank Lawrence.

The sure way to fully appreciate any family at Thanksgiving is to see "Arsenic and Old Lace" on Friday or Saturday nights. If the audience can take time out from laughing to think, it will think its families wonderfully sane and satisfactory.

Potluck Luncheon Given Crocker School Teachers

Mrs. Anne Ingersoll was the gracious hostess Thursday, November 12, along with the executive board of the Crocker PTA at the luncheon which was given for the teachers of Crocker school.

The bountiful pot luck was provided by Mrs. George Freeland, Mrs. Mil Antonio, Mrs. Frank Prisco, Mrs. Grace Lunn, Mrs. William Klemz, Mrs. John Eason, Mrs. Georgi Derham, Mrs. Kenneth Ryan, Mrs. Betty Price, Mrs. Betsy Day, Mrs. Marie Rentch, Mrs. John Sooman, Mrs. Clarence Sciaroni, Mrs. Lynn Cinti, Mrs. Bernice Hockaday, Mrs. John Eckert and Mrs. Jack White.

A varied and delicious luncheon was enjoyed by all the teachers and members of the PTA executive board who were present.

This luncheon was an opportunity for the teachers and PTA executive board members to become acquainted and to discuss matters of interest to both groups.

A WEE DRAP OF THE OLD ARSENIC, SIR

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE make for comedy in the play by that name to be presented to-night (Friday) and tomorrow by San Mateo Junior College Players club. Jan Sproule, (center) freshman from D.C., skillfully mixes mayhem and mirth in the role of "Martha," eccentric spinster, who, along with her sister, "Abby," at right, succeed in doing away with unsuspecting gentlemen in a most riotous manner. Abby is played by Marilyn McKenna.

JUNE WEDDING BELLS FOR BROADMOOR MAN

Jack F. Smith, now serving aboard the U.S.S. Bryce Canyon (AD-36) in the Far East, has announced his plans to wed Miss Patricia A. Szuzitzky of Los Angeles.

The groom-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Smith, 744 87th street, Broadmoor Village. They plan to be wed when he returns home in June. The benedict-elect is a graduate of Jefferson high school, class of '50. He spent one year at San Mateo Junior college, before entering the Navy in February, 1951.

The young couple met when he came home in February of 1953, after serving nine months in Japanese and Korean waters.

Colma PTA Ladies Start Bookbinding

The Colma PTA started bookbinding Tuesday, November 10, at the Jefferson Elementary school. Mrs. J. Doyle is chairman at Jefferson and Mrs. J. Ornellas is chairman at the R. S. Thornton school.

The following women have offered their services: Mesdames A. Castle, C. Newman, G. Radzikowski, V. Wallace, L. Knox, E. Quinteros, G. Hillman, A. Edgman, and G. Christiano. Anyone wishing to help may call Mrs. J. Doyle, PL. 5-5419, or Mrs. S. Vickers, PL. 5-3590.

Mrs. V. Wallace announced that today (Friday) the "Magazine Tea" will be held in the home arts room at the R. S. Thornton school from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Mrs. H. Sillick and Mrs. S. Vickers attended the 17th district regular meeting at the Carlmont high school, Belmont, yesterday.

The Colma PTA executive board meeting will be held November 24 in the teacher's room of the R. S. Thornton school at 1 p.m.

DC Sportswomen Install Officers

New Officers for the Daly City Sportswomen's club were installed Friday at ceremonies held at Lovchen Gardens in Colma.

Ed Moore officiated at the installation ceremonies. Congratulations were extended to the incoming officers of the Sportswomen and the Daly City Rod and Gun club.

A report on District Council No. 7 was given by Vivian Crispi at the November meeting, held in the home of Lee O'Neill of Broadmoor.

The Sportswomen received a rod and reel for turning in the most money toward the fishing at Lake Merced for the children and service men.

The December 9 meeting will be held at the home of the new madam president, Mrs. Crispi, 1 Parma street, Daly City.

A pot luck dinner will be given and the exchange of Christmas gifts will be made. Gifts are not to exceed $1.50 in cost.

County Volunteer Bureau Established

Of interest to all civic minded Daly City residents is the establishment of the Volunteer Bureau of San Mateo County as recently announced by Mrs. Gaynor Langsdorf, chairman of the organization's Advisory Committee. Serving with Mrs. Langsdorf on the committee is Mrs. C. C. Blalock of South San Francisco.

The Volunteer Bureau will be a department of the Community Council, a United Crusade service formerly known as the Council of Social Agencies of San Mateo county. Establishment of this Bureau is the result of four years study and planning and it is designated to provide volunteer workers for welfare, health and civic organizations throughout all of San Mateo county.

A professional director and staff assistant are to be announced in the near future, and the new office at 1229 Burlingame avenue in Burlingame will be put into operation for the initial task of itemizing volunteer needs throughout the county's social service agencies. The doors will open to the public for actual interviewing and placement of volunteers in January.

S.F. Shopper Bus Gets OK To Dec. 31

The Public Utilities Commission has extended and the Board of Supervisors is expected to approve San Francisco's 5-cent shopper special buses for operation until Dec. 31.

The service scheduled for a two-month trial period would have ended last Saturday (Nov. 14).

In addition to a new lease on life the service has been expanded to include the downtown financial and business sections during the period 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. for the convenience of business people. The present route along Market street and through the triangle shopping district will continue to operate from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

lingame will be put into operation for the initial task of itemizing volunteer needs throughout the county's social service agencies. The doors will open to the public for actual interviewing and placement of volunteers in January.
